Master's Degree Program in Accounting, Control and Finance I academic year 2026/2027

Accounting, Financial, Management and Control

Mandatory language

University Language Center

Introduction

All language courses are held in the target language in order to ensure a proper learning.

It is an immersive approach that aims at replicating as much as possible the natural process of language acquisition. At this purpose the student is constantly exposed to linguistic input in order to encourage active speaking.

- assignments
- outcome of the final test

Mandatory language: general rules

RULES OF CHOICE

- selection to be done through Web Self Service in November 2026
- no changes will be possible after the deadline
- if you don't select a language, one will be assigned by default

COURSES ACTIVATION

- language courses do not have a limited number
- courses will be activated based on the number of choices and the level of students
- it is not requested to have prior knowledge

COURSE STRUCTURE

- in February 2027 a test for activating groups will be carried out
- the course will start in the II semester of the first year
- exemption is not provided

Italian courses for foreign students

Italian language courses are offered to foreign students and, unlike the other language courses, they are delivered from the first semester of courses.

Please note that the course is reserved to students with a foreign citizenship. If you are a native Italian speaker and you select Italian, the course will be automatically replaced with a different language.

Italian courses for foreign students

If you started attending the course in September 2026 and decide to select it as your mandatory language, in case of attendance at or above 50%, the semester already attended will be counted to determine the conclusion of the course.

If your attendance rate is below 50% - also in case of “Pass” - the course will restart again for one semester.

Lesson attendance and active participation

Based on a continuous assessment method, the active participation in lessons is part of the evaluation that Professors express at the end of each semester.

Active participation in lessons is also the best preparation for the final for-credit exam.

How to enroll

You have to enroll to your course autonomously searching for your group (ex. Francese infra gr. 3) using the search box on top of the page and then clicking on “Enroll me”.

Access to the didactic materials

Once enrolled it will be possible to access the course material, assignments and digital contents uploaded by your Professor in order to enrich your learning and catch up with the program in case of absence.
