

Eni & Luiss offer 10 Scholarships Sub-Saharan Africa Project

The "Sub-Saharan Africa Project", stemming from the partnership between Eni and Luiss, will contribute to training members of the African business class by enabling talented young people to undertake master's degree Programs at Luiss.

With the aim of promoting human capital and contributing to the growth of the African continent, Eni supports training programs for the young by affording them the opportunity to gain know-how and learn about best practice through studying at Luiss.

As part of the "Sub-Saharan Africa Project" agreement for the implementation of geopolitical training, orientation and analysis programs, Eni and Luiss are offering 10 scholarships for the 2020/2021 academic year for master degree programs taught in English, open to students from Angola, Congo, Ivory Coast, Ghana, Mozambique and Nigeria.

The program envisages the award of a full-ride scholarship to each admitted student, covering tuition fees and the total cost of bed and board in Rome during the 2 academic years.

To finalize the application candidates must fill out the application form online by 4 June 2020, attaching an academic transcript (language certifications, SAT and ACT are optional). Luiss University will ask for a letter of reference to the Professor mentioned by the applicant in the application form.

The scholarship will be confirmed for the following academic year on condition that the student, by 31 July of every year, has earned at least 70% of the education credits required under their study plan.
