Article 1

Announcement

Luiss Libera Università Internazionale degli Studi Sociali Guido Carli (hereinafter the “University” or “Luiss Guido Carli”) hereby announces pursuant to article 18, paragraph 4-ter, of Law No. 240 of December 30, 2010, and in the manner laid down in the Luiss Guido Carli Regulations on the procedure for the recruitment of first-level and second-level professors in implementation of Articles 7, 18 and 24 of Law No. 240 of 30 December 2010 and Articles 1 (9) and 1 (12) of Law No. 230 of 4 November 2005 in force (hereinafter the “Regulations”) – a selection procedure for the recruitment of a tenured professor with the following characteristics:

- number of positions: one;
- Full Professor;
- Department of Law and Institutions;
- academic-discipline group (GSD) 12/GIUR-11 – Comparative Law;
- academic-discipline field (SSD) GIUR-11/B – Comparative Public Law;
- competition code (codice concorso) DIST-ORD20%-11/2026;
- specific functions: the successful candidate will be employed at the Department of Law and Institutions. The selected professor will carry out teaching and research activities consistent with his/her academic-discipline field and in harmony with the main research lines of the University, its Research Centers, and the Schools, related to Comparative Public Law. He/she should be able to conduct lectures in Italian and in English on Comparative Public Law topics. Teaching activities, supplementary teaching activities, and student support services shall amount to 350 hours per year, including 120 hours per year dedicated to classroom teaching in the case of a full-time commitment regime, or 250 hours per year, including 90 hours per year dedicated to classroom teaching in the case of a defined-time (part-time) commitment regime. The candidate will be expected to promote research projects both nationally and internationally. In particular, the specific functions will have to cover the following topics:
 - key features and transformations of the parliamentary form of government;
 - theoretical aspects of constitutional democracy in the Member States of the European Union;
 - problematic trends of the rule of law;
 - budgetary and fiscal procedures in federal systems;
 - the role of independent institutions in economic governance.
- the remuneration that the winner of the selection will be entitled to under article 8 of Law No. 240/2010 and Presidential Decree No. 232 of December 15, 2011, is that applicable to Full Professors depending on the career position of the winner and the relevant commitment chosen.

Article 2

Requisites for the Submission of Applications and Exclusions

The selection is open to candidates who have obtained national eligibility pursuant to article 16 of Law No. 240/2010 in the academic-discipline group to which the call for applications refers and for the functions that the procedure concerns but who are not already working as full professor in Italy or abroad with an equivalent role.

The candidates should be able to teach courses and write journal articles also in English.

The qualifications must be held on the date that the competition closes.

The procedure for the awarding of the contract referred to in this announcement is not open to those who are related, by blood or marriage up to the fourth degree inclusive, to a first or second level professor at the Department in question, the Rector, the General Manager or a member of the University's Board of Directors.

Article 3

Applications

Applications to participate in the public selection procedure as well as qualifications held and documents and publications considered useful for the selection procedure must, on pain of exclusion, be submitted electronically using the dedicated computerized platform on the following page of the University's website: <https://pica.cineca.it/luiss/dist-ord20-11-2026/domande/>

The platform will necessarily require candidates to have an e-mail address in order to be able to register automatically with the system. The candidate must enter all the required data to generate their application and attach soft copies of the documents referred to in this announcement. No other form of submitting applications or documentation with a view to participating in the selection will be accepted.

By the deadline for the submission of applications, the system allows candidates to save their application in draft mode. The date of electronic submission of the actual application for participation in the selection is certified by the computer system through a receipt that will automatically be sent by e-mail. Upon expiry of the deadline for submission, the system will no longer allow access to and submission of the electronic application form. Applications received after the deadline will not be accepted.

Each application will be assigned an identification number that, together with the competition code specified on the platform, will have to be specified in any subsequent correspondence.

The process for filling out and submitting applications must be completed no later than 2 p.m. Central European Summer Time (CEST) on thirty day running from the day after the date of publication of the Notice regarding this announcement in the Official Journal of the Italian Republic - 4th special series. If the stated deadline falls on a public holiday, it is extended to the next business day.

The submission of the application must be formally completed by choosing one of methods of signature set out in the "digital signature" page of the dedicated platform.

The service may be temporarily suspended for technical reasons.

Should the computer systems adopted by the University suffer a proven technical glitch making submission of applications impossible through the platform, the University reserves the right to accept applications in ways other than that indicated in the previous paragraphs.

For reporting technical problems only, you may contact CINECA via the link at the bottom of the application form page <https://mipa.support.cineca.it/support.php?service=pica.cineca.it&cmp=56435>.

In their application, candidates will have to declare under their own responsibility:

- department, academic-discipline group, academic-discipline field of the selection procedure;
- surname and name;
- gender;
- place and date of birth;
- residence;
- nationality;
- contact address for the purposes of the competition;
- tax number (solely for Italian residents);
- e-mail address for the purposes of the competition;
- telephone number;
- university qualifications held (degree, research doctorate);
- fulfilment of the requisites referred to in article 2 above;
- information concerning the enjoyment of civil and political rights in the applicant's country of citizenship, criminal convictions, and pending criminal proceedings;
- information regarding military obligations;
- that they have not been removed from employment or relieved of my duties with an Italian public authority and neither have I forfeited an Italian government job on the grounds set forth in subparagraph d) of the first paragraph of article 127 of Law No. 3 of 10 January 1957;
- that they possess an adequate level of knowledge of the English language as required by the announcement;
- that the publications attached for evaluation have all been published or accepted for publication.

Candidates with a recognized disability, pursuant to Law No. 104 of 5 February 1992, must specify in their application the assistance that they will require having regard to their situation as well as the extra time, if any, needed for the interview.

The following must be attached to the application and uploaded to the system:

- a copy of a valid identification document;
- an academic-professional curriculum;
- the academic publications up to a maximum of 15 that candidates intend to rely on for the purposes of the selection procedure.

Each attachment must not exceed 30 megabytes.

Should the candidate submit more than 15 publications and/or works, the extra ones will be excluded from the comparative assessment.

Works published abroad must cite their ISBN or equivalent.

Publications may be submitted in their original language if that is Italian or English. If the translations are not provided, the related publications will not be evaluated. Otherwise, they must be translated into one of those said languages. The translation must be submitted along with a copy in the original language.

The Examining Commission shall have the sole say on checking and judging the admissibility of the application and attached documentation.

The official e-mail address of Luiss University for the purposes of this competition is recruiting@luiss.it, except as otherwise provided.

The e-mail address stated in the application and the Luiss Guido Carli website constitute the official means of communication for this selection process and all related matters, except as otherwise provided. Therefore, the candidate is required to consult both communication channels.

Luiss University assumes no liability for any inability to contact the candidate or for any correspondence that goes astray as a result of the candidate's giving of an imprecise e-mail address or any problems not attributable to the University itself or in any event attributable to third parties, chance or force majeure.

Article 4

Examining Commission and Selection Procedures

The Commission is appointed by the Department Council and made up of three professors in accordance with the provisions of article 6 of the Regulations.

Should a commission member be replaced during the course of the procedure, everything done up to the time of that replacement shall remain valid and effective pursuant to the principle of conservation of legal acts.

The Commission will appoint one of its number as the Chairperson and another as the Recording Secretary.

The comparative evaluation is informed by the principles of article 7 of the Regulations.

- commitment to meaningful academic research, in addition to scientific publication consisting of books as well as articles in high-quality national and international academic journals;
- active participation in the academic debate on the most relevant topics in the reference sector (participation at national and international conferences, guest speeches, invitations to present research work in prestigious national and international universities);
- participation in editorial boards of leading national and international journals and the organization of relevant national and international conferences;
- significant teaching experience at the undergraduate, graduate, and postgraduate levels, delivered in both Italian and English;
- visiting scholarship, professorship in top schools, universities and research institutions.

In addition to the candidate's academic prowess the evaluation will also take account of the linguistic skills necessary because of the University's multilingual character and the teaching needs for courses taught in foreign languages. To this end, candidates might be called upon to hold a seminar on a topic of their choice, in English, also in presence of students. The Commission will summon candidates for the holding of the seminar subject to giving them at least 20 calendar days' notice.

The publication of the notice of convocation to the seminar on the Luiss Guido Carli website will have the value of notification for all participants in the competition, without the obligation of any further communication. Notice of the publication may also be given to the e-mail address indicated by the candidates in the application. Luiss Guido Carli assumes no responsibility for non-receipt or non-reading of the e-mail. It will, however, be the responsibility of the candidates to keep informed by consulting the website, in the section dedicated to the competition, to find the necessary information.

In case of absence from the seminar, the participant automatically renounces the comparative evaluation.

At the end of the proceedings the Commission will come to an overall judgment on each candidate and will compile a ranking to be sent to the Department Board.

Article 5

Duration of Selection Process

The Commission will conclude its work within four months after its appointment. The Rector may extend once and by two months at most the deadline for the conclusion of the procedure for stated reasons given by the Commission Chairperson.

Taking account of the Commission's judgment, teaching needs and the profile and functions specified in the announcement, the Department Board will establish, by reasoned and favourable vote of the absolute majority of first-level professors for the recruitment of first-level professors and absolute majority of first and second level professors for the recruitment of second-level professors, a ranking of names for submission to the Rector. On the basis of the deliberations of the Department Board, the Rector will make a proposal to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee will decide on the recruitment. The Rector will issue a decree recruiting the professor.

Article 6

Protection of Personal Data

Luiss Guido Carli, as Controller, collects and processes data subjects' information in full compliance with the general principles and rules laid down by the law governing the protection of personal data (Legislative Decree No. 196/03 and Regulation (EU) No. 2016/679).

The processing is required to correctly manage the procedures inherent in the call for applications as well as associated and ensuing obligations: the characteristics of the processing are communicated through a privacy notice given to the data subjects, who are also requested to consent to the processing of their data should it prove necessary in relation to the aims pursued by the Controller.

Data subjects may at all times exercise their statutory rights (concerning, for example, access to data, rectification of data, erasure of data, restrictions on processing of data and portability of data) by contacting the Controller Luiss Guido Carli at Viale Pola 12, 00198 Rome, Italy, e-mail privacy@luiss.it.

Article 7
