

Call for applications to the comparative selection procedure for n. 1 collaboration contract on the EU funded project BRIDGEGAP

1. Premise

A comparative selection procedure, based on qualifications, approved by Luiss CE, is organized to assign n. 1 collaboration contract (collaborazione coordinata e continuativa – co.co.co.) – according to the National Collective Bargaining Agreement for Collaborators at Private Universities (Accordo collettivo nazionale di riferimento per i Collaboratori delle università non statali) – for supporting research activities related to the project BRIDGEGAP (G.A. n. 101132483, CUP I83C23001280006), funded by the EU within the framework of the Horizon Europe program (hereinafter "the project").

2. Subject of the contract

BRIDGEGAP aims to fill the knowledge gaps regarding both the extent to and the mechanisms by which corruption infiltrates open societies even across borders and it produces measurements of corruption across countries and time by its innovative models, as well as social network maps. It also assesses and offers solutions to the digital transparency gaps, ranging from the tools of transparency, the use and abuse of technology in corruption and anticorruption to the state of it. Finally, it assesses public accountability and anticorruption regulation across EUMS and candidate states to identify regulatory and impact gaps, thus addressing the academia–policy gap in corruption studies.

The purpose of this comparative evaluation selection procedure is to select 1 collaborator for carrying out the following activities:

- Assistance to MOOC (WP10). Help with design and implementation of massive online course
- Research assistance for book deliverable (month 48)
- Dissemination and communication support

3. Location, duration and remuneration

Project research activities to be carried out will belong to Luiss, under the supervision of the Scientific Coordinator of the project, who will verify correct performance of the contract and the consistency between results achieved and objectives set.

Here below the duration and the remuneration provided:

Duration: commencing from the first day of the month following the awarding of the contract, compatibly with the timing of administrative procedures, to the 31/12/2027, end of Bridgegap project.

Maximum gross amount depending on the fiscal regime of selected candidate: 16,160.66 euro.
The amount includes contributions to be paid by the researcher.
The remuneration will be paid in deferred monthly instalments from project funds.

4. Admission requirements

Admission to the comparative selection procedure is allowed providing the following requirements, failing which the candidate will be excluded:

- a) Four-year and/or master's degree in social science or communication science, obtained at an accredited university
- b) Excellent communication skills in English (written and spoken). Candidates should indicate their level of proficiency and any certifications in their CV

In any case, for admission to the comparative evaluation selection procedure it is necessary that the candidates:

- be in full enjoyment of their civil and political rights;
- not have a criminal record and not be the addressee of measures concerning the application of preventive measures, civil decisions and administrative measures entered in the criminal records database;
- be aware that they are not undergoing criminal proceedings.

The following requirements will be positively evaluated:

- Previous experience in academic projects focused on anti-corruption and governance
- Previous experience with online media content creation and marketing

This comparative selection procedure is not open to those who, on the date of the deadline for the submission of applications, are related, by blood or marriage up to the fourth degree inclusive, to a professor affiliated with the department or unit responsible for this notice of competition, the Rector, the
