Important notes

- This study plan is intended for students participating in the mentioned Double Degree Program who will spend the 2026-27 academic year at PUL.
- Students are required to read and understand the study plan and its rules. These are considered binding for the successful completion of the double degree program.
- Typically, changes to the study plan are not allowed. Any request for changes must be submitted to the International Development Office and the Academic Coordinator, who will evaluate the request.
- During the mobility period, students will be subject to the rules of PUL.
- Upon completion of the program, if students meet the academic requirements of both Luiss and PUL, they will be awarded both the Bachelor's degree in Scienze della Pace (issued by the Pontificia Università Lateranense) and the Bachelor's degree in Scienze Politiche (issued by Luiss).

Thesis

- Both PUL and Luiss require a final thesis.
- The defense of the thesis is not required at Luiss, which only requires the submission of the thesis, but it is required at PUL.
- Students will complete their thesis during the third year of study with two supervisors, one from each university.
- Students are required to follow the procedures and deadlines for the thesis of both universities, including submission, evaluation, quality control, originality checks, etc.
- Students can submit their thesis during the summer session (July), the autumn session (October-November), or in March of the following academic year.
- Each university will evaluate the final thesis according to its own standards.
- Both supervisors must approve the proposal, which must meet the standards of both universities.

While every effort will be made to provide students with complete, accurate and timely information, Luiss reserves the right to change, amend, modify, or revoke the aforementioned program. Luiss is not responsible for any cancellation or modification due to events beyond its control. If the program is cancelled or modified for these reasons, Luiss will inform all interested students in a timely manner.
