Important Rules

- This study plan is designed for students taking part in the mentioned Double Degree Program and spending the academic year 2026-27 at Sciences Po Bordeaux.
- Interested students are required to read and understand the study plan and its rules. These are to be considered binding to the successful completion of the double degree program. Changes to the study plan are usually not possible. Any request in this sense must be conveyed to International Degree Programs and the Academic Coordinator, that will evaluate the request.
- The listed exams must be taken and passed in the academic year indicated in the scheme (not after). Any possible change must be formally authorized by the Academic Commission.
- During the mobility, students will be subject to the rules of the partner university.
- At the end of the program, if compliant with both Luiss and Sciences Po Bordeaux academic requirements, students will obtain both the Master “Diploma of Sciences Po Bordeaux, Major in International Affairs” (issued by Sciences Po Bordeaux) and the Master’s Degree in International Relations (issued by Luiss).

Thesis

- Students will complete their theses during their mobility period with two supervisors: one from each University;
- Students must respect the thesis procedures and deadlines from both institutions;
- A document of about 100-120 pages is required. Furthermore, students will meet the requests of their supervisors with reference to the length of the thesis.
- Both supervisors have to approve the proposal, which must meet the standards of both institutions. Each institution will grade the final thesis according to its own standards.
- Students are reminded that they are required to comply with the Luiss regular procedure regarding the thesis assignment, registration for the degree exam and upload of the thesis. For further information, please check the following page.
- Students will defend the thesis at Luiss in the following sessions: Summer session (July) and Autumn Session (October/early-November maximum). Due to partner deadlines, students are NOT entitled to defend their thesis in the Extraordinary Session (March/April) and need to defend it in the previous sessions at Luiss.
- Students will defend the thesis at Sciences Po Bordeaux in October (by 15th of the month).
