Important Rules

- Important Note: While under the current situation it is expected to deliver the 2026 edition of the program in campus in the United States, students are requested to consider that changes to the teaching arrangement might happen without much notice should the health situation or University policies require it.
- This study plan is designed for students taking part in the mentioned Double Degree Program and spending the Summer Term 2026 (June 8 to July 24, 2026) at the Fordham University Gabelli School of Business.
- Interested students are required to read and understand the study plan and its rules. These are to be considered binding to the successful completion of the double degree program. Changes to the study plan are not possible.
- During the mobility, students will be subject to the rules of Fordham University.
- At the end of the program, if compliant with both Luiss and Fordham academic requirements, students will obtain both the MSc in Finance (issued by Fordham University) and the Master's Degree in Economics and Finance or in Corporate Finance (issued by Luiss).
- Students will complete their theses during the 2nd year at Luiss with one supervisor from Luiss. Luiss students will defend the Master thesis only at Luiss.
- The net tuition charges for the 2026 Collaborative MSGF program are equal to $23,934 and do not include administrative fees, books and course materials and accommodation, among others. Tuition fees are paid directly to Fordham according to its rules and deadlines, to be communicated in due time. Please find more information on the program website.
- A minimum average grade of B is required for the four transfer courses taken at Luiss (please check the applicable study plans above) to be transferred to the MSGF degree. The minimum accepted grade is B- (equal currently to a 21/30 in the Luiss grading scale) as long as the other transfer courses make the average grade stay above B. The transfer courses are specified in the study plan. No requests appealing against this rule can be accepted due to strict regulations by the partner university.
- Students enrolled in the 2nd year of Economics and Finance or Corporate Finance willing to graduate in the November 2026 defense session, are compelled to notify the International Degree Programs by email before September 1st, 2026.
- Completion of the Double Degree in Global Finance with Fordham involves the successful defense of the master thesis at Luiss. Therefore, students will be eligible to graduate at Fordham only after having graduated at Luiss.
- If a student fails one course, there is a possible option to make up the credits. The student may retake the course when it is offered again. The decision to offer this option is at the discretion of the Fordham faculty. The student is required to pay tuition for the additional credits.
